STEP UP FOR STUDENTS

THIRD QUARTER PAYMENTS

SCENT SENSITIVITY
When picking up your child in the office, please be mindful of strong scents. We have several students with scent sensitivity and asthma. We currently smell cologne, perfumes, tobacco and marijuana. If you find that you have these scents, we are more than happy to bring your child out to you by the benches in our entranceway. We are also a drug and tobacco free campus. Thank you for understanding.

BLOODHOUND PRESENTATION

We are excited to have Ms. Samantha join us with Clyde for a bloodhound presentation on Thursday, February 12th. Mr. Ryan, Ms. Samantha and Clyde are part of Community United Efforts, a national K-9 Search and Rescue team and a local search and rescue team. Ms. Samantha and Clyde will be at the Capitol on Thursday and will come by the school. They will share a few facts about Clyde's job and how hard he works. Clyde, Mr. Ryan and Ms. Samantha train on the weekends. Mr. Ryan and others lay tracks for Clyde and other blood-hounds during their training sessions. Students will be allowed to pet him during the presentation if they would like to. We are lucky to have such talented staff share with us.

TRASH PICK UP

Wednesday our Second Grade class walked along the sidewalk on Meridian Road and picked up trash. This was part of their Science curriculum this week in how to help our environment. Thank you to our Second Graders for taking care of our community.

CELEBRATION OF HANDS

We worked together to trace and cut out our student's hands to create a banner to hang in the Capitol. Ms. Samantha delivered the banner to the Children's Forum this week. Sunday, February 22nd, volunteers will take time to hang banners of children's handprints from around the state in the rotunda to remind our legislatures about our little ones when they are making new laws and amending current ones. It truly is a beautiful site. Take a moment to visit the capitol during this time.
